

Hunter Haislip

731-413-4577 | hunlhais@ut.utm.edu
<https://github.com/hunterhaislip>

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Outgoing and people-oriented team-player.
- Strong critical thinking and complex problem solver.
- Confident public speaker.
- Creative front-end developer.

EDUCATION

University of Tennessee at Martin; Martin, TN
Bachelor of Science in Computer Science; May 2021

- Finance Minor
- GPA: 3.6

SKILLS

Languages: C++, C#, HTML, CSS, Java, Prolog.

Tools/IDE: CLion, Visual Studio, Atom, Unreal Engine 4, Photoshop, Illustrator, Google Cloud Platform.

PROJECTS

Burning Choices – A top-down choice-based video game created by using a WPF application in Visual Studio. This was a group project for class.

- Served as lead front-end developer for project.
- Created all the characters as well as the landscapes and images.
- Developed entire storyline.
- Created complete map consisting of mountains as well as animals.

Scouting Connect – A new social media website where coaches and athletes can connect for potential scholarships all around the country. This was an individual project at the Pickhacks 36-hour hackathon.

- Created website using HTML and CSS.
- Produced each design from scratch using Photoshop.
- Published website using Google Cloud Platform.

EXPERIENCE

Lauderdale County Mayor; Ripley, TN | Website Designer/Creator; Summer Break, 2019

- Created and then implemented an interactive website for community to organize events.
- Created website using HTML and CSS to fit consumer's needs.
- Designed and created the logo, and other images using Photoshop and Illustrator.

Bank of Ripley; Ripley, TN | Loan Department; Summer and Winter Break, 2018

- Collaborated with professionals in the loans and bookkeeping department.
- Booked loans on the system for the entire bank.
- Organized book department to keep the accounts up to date.

HONORS/AWARDS

Microsoft Student Partner, 2019

Scouting Connect - Received Best Human Centered Design (UI/UX) at Pickhacks hackathon, 2019

National Society of Leadership and Success (NSLS), 2019

Phi Eta Sigma honor society, 2018

Governor's School at The University of Tennessee at Martin, 2016